“Our firm established the Sol Schwartz & Associates Accounting Scholarship. The scholarship supports our proud tradition of community involvement, with a strong emphasis on education.”

~ Jeff Albrecht

Jeff Albrecht is an owner and the managing shareholder of Sol Schwartz & Associates, P.C. As a practicing public accountant since 1980 with IRS training, Jeff has been involved in all areas of tax including individual, corporate and partnerships. His client base includes restaurants, wildlife management, ranching, legal and medical practices and all areas of real estate, and he’s worked extensively in areas of trust income taxation, asset protection, succession and estate planning, like-kind exchanges, entity planning, the sale/purchase of businesses, depreciation analysis, gift planning, and charitable foundations.

Jeff has presented seminars and published articles on an array of tax subjects and is a previous member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants Tax Forms Committee. He earned the professional designation of Certified Specialist in Estate Planning (CSEP), awarded by the National Institute for Excellence in Professional Education, LLC in conjunction with various state societies of CPAs. He is a member of the Wealth Transfer Planning Group, which concentrates on estate and gift transfers using sophisticated planning techniques.

Jeff graduated from The University of Texas at Austin and resides in his hometown of New Braunfels where he maintains a lifestyle consistent with the firm’s mission of using his skills and knowledge to benefit his clients as well as the community. He is actively involved in his church and an array of local organizations, including: past president of both the Downtown Rotary Club of New Braunfels and Wurstfest Association, the New Braunfels’ Chamber of Commerce’s Leadership New Braunfels program, member of the New Braunfels Foundation Trust and the Planned Giving Advisory Committee of the American Red Cross, chairman of the McKenna Memorial Hospital Audit Committee and board member of First Commercial Bank.
