Mary Cardenas is a Tax Manager with Sol Schwartz & Associates, P.C. Since joining the firm in 2005, Mary's work experience includes tax return preparation, tax planning, and assisting clients' bookkeeping staff. She provides services to a variety of clients including high wealth investors, closely-held businesses, real estate ventures, the medical profession, ranches, non-profits, and small businesses. Mary maintains the intricate network of multiple business entities these clients use to protect their assets and minimize their taxes. As a member of both the Healthcare Services and Real Estate groups, Mary is committed to keeping pace with the latest developments in both industries. Mary is also knowledgeable about IRS policies and procedures, having represented numerous clients before the IRS for collection issues for three years with successful results.

Mary served as president of the American Society of Women Accountants San Antonio Chapter for 2009—2010 and serves the community on a regular basis each year teaching in various financial literacy programs. Mary has received the Member of the Year award twice from the San Antonio Chapter of the American Society of Women Accountants. She has served on the Sol Schwartz & Associates scholarship committee since its inception. Mary has been actively involved in the Stone Oak Business Association for two years and is a member of the UTSA Alumni Association.

Mary graduated from The University of Texas at San Antonio in 2003 where she obtained a Master of Science degree in Taxation. She obtained her CPA license in 1999 and has twelve years of experience in public accounting.
